A SMALL ESCAPE WITH ENDLESS WELCOME

Curiosity Creek is a retreat surrounded by the natural beauty of Palmetto, where everyday life feels like a getaway. Here, approximately 1,800 homes will take shape across a variety of styles, including single-family residences, townhomes, and multifamily options, all thoughtfully designed by award-winning builders. It is a place where forward-looking features blend seamlessly with timeless Florida charm, with sustainable touches like solar streetlights and the ease of lightning-fast ULTRAFi internet woven into daily life.

At the heart of the community, a resort-style pool with a lazy river sets the tone for relaxation, while beautifully crafted gathering spaces invite neighbors to connect. Families can splash and play together in a dedicated children's zone and open lawn, while future access to an adjoining county park will bring even more opportunities for recreation and reflection in nature. And with retail and dining conveniences right at the entrance, the things you need most are always close at hand.

Perfectly positioned just minutes from I-75, Curiosity Creek offers easy access to Sarasota, St. Pete, and Tampa, yet feels like a true retreat within reach. Whether you're raising a family or searching for a simpler pace, this is a place to disconnect from the rush and reconnect with what matters most.

CONNECTIONS COME NATURALLY HERE

Tucked away in Northwest Palmetto, Curiosity Creek offers a serene blend of unspoiled landscapes and small-town charm. This picturesque area is defined by oak-canopied roads, pristine estuaries, and a network of creeks and preserves that wind their way to the Gulf of Mexico. Beloved by nature lovers, the region is a haven where wildlife thrives, and sunsets light up the sky—all just minutes from the convenience of Apollo Beach Airport.
